

OGWADENI:DEO
Taking Care of Our Own

Call for Applications for Membership

Six Nations Child Welfare Program

We are currently looking for a youth representative who is able to represent the voice of youth in care and the service provision for youth with the age of protection services now being raised to 18.

To be eligible to serve on the Commission, applicants must submit a completed application and must be:

- 18 years of age or older
- Have not been found guilty of a criminal offence for which a pardon has not been granted, nor have been found guilty of an offence against a child/youth; both as verified, annually, through Canadian Police Information Centre (CPIC) and Vulnerable Sector Searches
- Have an interest in and a reasonable knowledge of the delivery of child and family services (although extensive training will be provided).

The Commission will hold responsibility to:

- (a) Delegate powers and responsibilities as are authorized by the Commission.
- (b) Monitor the mission statement, guiding principles and overall direction of the organization.
- (c) Approve and monitor the financial management, personnel and operational policies and procedures of the organization.
- (d) Monitor the quality and effectiveness of services and supports provided to the people by Ogwadeni:deo.
- (e) Have direct supervisor responsibilities over the Director.
- (f) Along with the Director, will negotiate and be responsible for the annual budget.

COMPLETED APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY MARCH 7, 2018

Interested individuals may contact Crystal Doolittle, Director at crystaldoolittle@sixnations.ca or by telephone: 519-445-1864 to inquire about the application process, or may stop at Ogwadeni:deo reception to pick up an application package @ 2469 4th Line, Ohsweken ON