Gregory Frazer Elected to Six Nations of the Grand River Elected Council

Gregory Frazer has been elected as the ninth councillor of the 58th Elected Council of Six Nations of the Grand River in today's by-election.

The ninth council seat, left vacant upon the resignation of Councillor Wendelyn Johnson in June, will be assumed by Gregory Frazer following a swearing-in ceremony at the upcoming General Council meeting on September 13 in the Council Chambers.

Six Nations of the Grand River Elected Council would like to congratulate Gregory on being chosen by the community for this great duty and looks forward to working with him for the prosperity of Six Nations.
