

Six Nations of the Grand River – Director of Wellbeing

ID: 23-P050A Location: Ohsweken, ON

With over 28,000 members, The Six Nations of the Grand River Territory is the largest populated First Nation in Canada. Located about 20 km southwest of Hamilton off Hwy. 6, approximately 50% of those members reside on the territory. The First Nation's boundary extends from Grand River on the north to Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation/Indian Town Line to the south. Easterly boundaries are Oneida Road and the CN Railway. The Westerly boundary is Bateman Line. The Six Nations consist of Mohawk, Oneida, Cayuga, Seneca, Onondaga, and Tuscarora Nations.

The Director of Wellbeing is responsible for providing leadership, oversight, and direction to SNGR clinical programs, which include the Family Health Team, Mental Health and Substance Use Services, Health Promotion, Long Term Care, Palliative Care, Child & Youth Services, and rehabilitative services.
