COMMUNITY AWARENESS

EVENT BOOKLET

SIX NATIONS OF THE GRAND RIVER

A MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

We are thrilled to announce that Community Awareness 2025 is here from May 1 to May 31, 2025! This is an exciting time for our community as we come together to celebrate and participate in various engaging events.

Community Awareness highlights the many things Six Nations has to offer and is an excellent opportunity for us to come together to enjoy good food, have fun, and reconnect. Community organizations and individuals are eager to highlight their departments, businesses, services, and talents. There are events for everyone—whether you're seeking family-friendly activities, fun and games, delicious food, or sporting events!

Nia:wen kowa to everyone who contributed to making Community Awareness possible. Countless individuals, including the event coordinator, event hosts, and you, the community, continue to support this month year after year. Let's come together to make Community Awareness 2025 an unforgettable month.

Nia:wen,

Jennifer Court, Acting CEO, Six Nations of the Grand River

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

May is here, bringing with it is Community Awareness Week 2025! I am proud to support the learning and connection that occurs every year during Community Awareness.

This special month is possible due to the hard work and dedication of our staff, the community, and participating organizations.

I'm excited to see the community participate in all the events planned! Please stay safe, get involved, stay informed, and enjoy all that Community Awareness has to offer!

Nia:wen,

Sherri-Lyn Hill, Elected Chief, Six Nations of the Grand River
